

Uncomfortable Cross

Mark 8:34; Mark 10:43-45

Following Christ is not just obeying what he said but doing what he did. The comfort of the crown is at the end of the path of an uncomfortable cross. Good disciples follow instruction and demonstration. Following Christ is a commitment to a crown and a cross.

Introduction

According to the 2013 movie Terms and Conditions May Apply, it would take the average American 180 hours per year to read all the “terms and conditions” he or she agrees to on websites and other agreements. It is no wonder that almost everyone checks the box indicating they agree with these lengthy documents filled with legal jargon. In fact, most of us would not understand it even if we read it. The point of the movie is that we are often agreeing to things that could end up costing us that which we never expected.

Many people who make a decision for Christ do not read the “terms and conditions” before saying “Yes!” Then when the road is difficult and Jesus calls us to suffer, we ask, “Why?” We must count the cost before committing to follow him. And follow—for it will be worth all you have to give and more than he will ever ask of you.

Mark 8:31–33(ESV)

31 And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And he said this plainly. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."
